

This image shows a vertical sheet of music paper. On the left side, there is a vertical column of 15 treble clefs, each positioned at the beginning of a horizontal staff. The staves are blank, with no musical notes or other markings. The paper is oriented vertically, with the clefs and staves running from top to bottom.